

Feature Article

Similar to speech, a Feature Article also does not have a format. However, there are important pointers to follow in presenting a Feature Article.

Attention Grabbing Header (a header that catches the attention of audience)

Overview of article

Body Paragraphs

Must have at least 2 interviewees (quote in direct speech). For example below:

"This is really unsettling," said Ali, a 60-year-old local fisherman.

Added another student, Jamie, 16: "This is just so unbelievable!"

Conclusion

Ends with a quote (usually from someone in authority). For example below:

Dr Smart, 40, a scientist who works at the city's Space Program, said: "I have never come across such a thing in my years of research."
